Garson Design Reaches 15 Year Mark

15 years in business seems like a long time to have past so quickly for us at Garson Design Services. After serving as art director for over 12 years at various San Francisco bay area advertising agencies - owner, Steve Garson, decided the time was right to serve the north bay in Solano county. Armed with those years of solid experience with a goal of low cost but professional capabilities, the growth has been consistant.

Our success has been centered on providing a client and product centered design approach drawing from a wide breath of styles to suit any taste. We look forward to continued growth and service on into the future.

Steve Garson, Eric Wojan & Nelisa Agustin

Advertising agency experience developed many of our skills - getting to know the client, their service or product, quickly, targeting their demographic market and developing a unique look that just happens to win awards as in the case of this campaign for Engelhart Gourmet Foods.
